

There is nothing wrong with competition. I've had XM Satellite Radio for only 1 month and I enjoy the variety of channels and I still continue to lesson to local radion stations.

Leave well enough alone, isn't there more important problems in the U.S. that we should be concentrating on like gas prices, prescription drugs for the eldery, homelessness, aids, poverty, securing the country against terrorists, etc).

Thank you.